

BIOGRAPHY:

AZALEAS are a 5-piece metal band who take inspiration from the hardcore genre: HEAVY HITTING, ENERGETIC, POWERFUL.

Combining big anthemic choruses, high-energy riffs, and powerful screams, AZALEAS are a rising metal act based in the heart of Birmingham, well suited for any live setting. The band throw their individual experiences into the music to create a sound that audiences can engage with and feel a part of. Comprised of masked vocalist AZ, clean vocalist and bassist, Shay Lipyeat, guitarists Leon Haworth and Harrison Wallace, and drummer Matt Joiner, AZALEAS are truly set on their path, and there's nothing that will stop them.
